

REGISTERED NURSE – Residential Care

Selection Criteria

All applicants must complete the application form found in the Working With Us section of our website. Applications should also include a resume and a covering letter which details your claims against each of the following selection criteria:

- 1) Evidence of your interest in and concern for elderly people;
- 2) Evidence of relevant clinical skills and aged care experience, with particular emphasis in regard to dementia care;
- 3) A practical understanding of the needs of people with dementia, and their Carers
- 4) The ability to coach and motivate staff with varied skills and knowledge levels to change / improve work practice that results in real outcomes for residents;
- 5) The ability to build a cohesive, supportive team.
- 6) Ability to manage competing priorities and to problem solve as issues arise.
- 7) The ability to accept responsibility and to know when to seek support and advice
- 8) Ability to work effectively with families, GPs and other health professionals, including networking capabilities.
- 9) An understanding of Work Health Safety responsibilities and risk management as they apply in such a role.
- 10) An understanding of ACFI.

The successful applicants must be currently registered with the AHPRA and have a minimum of 2 years post graduate experience as a Registered Nurse.

To be eligible to apply for this position you must have had the COVID19 Vaccination and be able to supply your evidence. You must also be a permanent resident or have an appropriate Australian or New Zealand work visa.

Please note: Appointment to this position will be subject to the preferred applicant undergoing a Functional Medical Assessment and having a current criminal history record clearance.