Key Features Statement

Description of quality, condition and amenity of room

These bright, freshly refurbished rooms have wall to wall carpet, easy to open drapes on the windows and a garden outlook.

All rooms look out onto beautiful manicured gardens. Some rooms have a balcony or patio.

Rooms can be personalised with photos, paintings, bed covers and a suitable chair.

En-suites include an accessible shower, toilet and vanity with storage and a large wall mirror.

Each room has reverse cycle air conditioning.

Rooms have specially designed beds allowing the resident to adjust the height and back rest using a remote control.

A variety of pressure relieving mattresses can be supplied according to resident needs.

Every room has a built-in floor to ceiling wardrobe with a combination of hanging space, shelves and storage space, and matching bedside chest of drawers.

Personal Pendant Alarms are provided for every room with a fixed alarm button in the en-suite.

Keeping in contact with loved ones and friends is made easy with free Wi-Fi and training in how to use the internet and email.

We provide 8 Foxtel channels, including sport, movies and entertainment channels.

A modern elevator provides easy access between lower and upper levels.

Description of quality, condition, size and amenity of accessible common areas

Residents have access to a large recreation area, with a beautiful adjacent garden terrace. There are also four other sitting areas and three balcony areas overlooking stunning gardens, where residents can entertain family and friends.

Residents also have easy access to our concert hall of 243 sq. metres, which also hosts a range of resident activities other than concerts.

The facility allows residents access to well-maintained internal garden spaces.

Room Size (m²):
17m² to 22m²

This figure excludes ensuite.

Residents have access to a serenity room, where they can enjoy a range of wellbeing initiatives including aromatherapy. This room is a space designed to help residents achieve a level of relaxation and meditation, and includes massage chairs and aromatherapy oils.

We have a beautiful newly renovated hairdressing salon.

Our coffee shop, Café Assisi is open 7 days per week.

In Lounge areas we provide 8 channels of Foxtel at no charge.

There is free Wi-Fi in all common areas.

Residents also have access to a well-resourced creative arts studio.

We also have two internet booths, one with a touch screen computer, and we provide free training for residents who are less familiar with computer terminals and email.

Specific accommodation and design features of the room, and of the facility

The facility is designed so as to give residents easy access to internal garden areas and to not feel enclosed.

The facility is beautifully painted and decorated, with feature walls painted in vibrant warm colours decorated with stunning prints.

All rooms have ease of access for any item in our large range of equipment.

All our facilities are surrounded by beautifully designed gardens which are available to residents and their families. There is a range of different themes in the various gardens on site, and grandchildren have room to play. Families might want to buy a family picnic hamper and enjoy it in our garden settings.

Description of additional care and services offered at no additional cost

As part of our Model of Wellbeing, we offer a range of services focusing on being active and able, being emotionally healthy, staying connected with friends and interests, and exploring a sense of inner calm and peace. All services are free.

In terms of enablement and healthy exercise programs, our exercise physiology team provides tailored exercise programs to improve residents' fitness levels and freedom of movement. We also have active games.

Al Fresco is our monthly open air restaurant experience, with full a la carte menu and wine or beer. Residents need to book.

Special Meal program: Each month we select 16 residents at random, who can invite a family member or friend to a private lunch with them, to share their all-time favourite meal, cooked by our executive chef and served with beer, wine or soft drink.

Mass is available every day. There is an inter-denominational service once a week, an Anglican service once a fortnight, a Christian Reformed Church service once a month, and a French speaking Catholic priest visits once a month to meet with French speaking residents.

Our Serenity Room program includes tai chi, aromatherapy, meditation and relaxation classes.

We provide 8 channels of Foxtel at no charge.

Optional additional services and costs associated with the room

Café Assisi opens 7 days a week, providing a modern, sophisticated coffee shop experience for residents and families. We offer a full range of drinks, gourmet sandwiches, wraps and light meals at subsidised prices. Cappuccinos are $3.00; sandwiches $3.50 and light meals $7.00.

Café Assisi provides a meeting space for the family and you can order birthday hampers for $6 per person which gets you a piece of cake and drink each. Alternatively you can order an attractively presented picnic hamper for $8 per person. This gets you a gourmet wrap, a drink and a piece of cake each.

We have a beautiful centrally located hairdressing salon, offering individualised services at subsidised prices. Men's cuts are just $10 and women's cuts are $16. A shampoo cut and blow dry is just $28. Perms start from $57. Our hairdresser can also visit residents in their facility.
