

St Clare

Key Feature Statement

A frail aged unit designed with the resident in mind, St Clare provides a calm space that enriches daily life. All rooms are single with a private ensuite and kitchenette, providing residents all of the comforts of home.

En-suites include an accessible shower, toilet, large wall mirror and vanity with storage. Rooms have large built-in robes and specially designed beds, allowing the resident to adjust the height and back rest using a remote control. A variety of pressure relieving mattresses can be supplied according to resident needs.

All rooms have a built-in buzzer system by the bedside and a fixed alarm button in the en-suite.

Residents can discover a greater sense of wellbeing in a place where home and nature connect. Integrated areas designed for socialising including gym, dining, activity and lounge rooms allow residents to stay connected with friends and interests, while the internal green spaces and lush gardens provide a peaceful haven.

St Clare residents can also enjoy the benefits of direct access to the concert hall, chapel, hairdressing salon and gym.

Many of these incredible additional services await you at no extra cost, allowing you to embrace your experience fully. There may be a small fee for specific services like hairdressing, pharmacy and some outings.
